On the occasion of the Second Annual Hudson River Day Festival at the Croton Yacht Club.

Whereas, we are here today to express our appreciation to the Croton Yacht Club of Croton-on-Hudson, New York, for organizing and hosting this Second Annual Hudson River Day Festival in our village; and

Whereas, the River Day Festival seeks to introduce members of the public to all things wet and wonderful about the Hudson River; and

Whereas, River Day features informative displays by many partner organizations as well by Yacht Club members on the river's history and ecology, and on the Native American culture that long predates the arrival of Europeans four centuries ago; and

Whereas, River Day includes large tanks of many local fish species caught with sein nets from the waters that lap these bulkheads; and

Whereas, River Day also offers toy sailboat making, boat restoration art displays, and actual boat rides, and as well fish printing and more; and

Whereas, our Village is truly blessed to have such a wonderful organization as the Croton Yacht Club as the instigator and host of this River Day as a powerful opportunity for imparting the incalculable value of a healthy and vibrant Hudson River to our community ;

Whereas, such exchanges produce powerful, enduring, and positive memories for all involved that have impacts long after the sun will have set on this day;

I, Leo A. W. Wiegman, now therefore humbly proclaim, with the power vested in me by the State of New York as your Mayor of our Village of Croton-on-Hudson, that this day, Saturday, the 11th of September, 2010, shall be "Hudson River Day" throughout our Village; and

I now further humbly proclaim, that, as water follows the laws of physics and not of municipalities, the community of river lovers in our Village itself is much larger and more inclusive than mere dotted lines on a municipal map; and that therefore, all those in attendance here today, are declared residents of the Village of Croton-on-Hudson for the day, regardless of their domicile, with all the benefits and responsibilities that adhere thereto;

That, our Village is a state of mind that enthusiastically embraces the exchange of ideas and experiences embodied so well by the Croton Yacht Club in sharing its members' knowledge and enthusiasm for our Hudson River with all those present here today.

Leo A. W. Wiegman, Mayor
